

Kimber Britner

General

I wanted to be a Rock Star, but I Couldn't Stay Up Past 10:00 p.m.

At one time or another we all have struggled in our search for identity. As Kimber uncovers the differing perspectives of the twin brothers, Esau and Jacob, and shares her own struggles, you will get a glimpse of the amazing inheritance we have in Christ.

The Upgrade

Not many of us long to be last, but in this relevant and humorous teaching, Kimber illustrates that when we humble our hearts before the Lord, we get upgraded in character.

A Flicker or a Flame

Is your life a misermooany, rather than the powerful testimony of a Son-kissed life? Kimber will give you the fuel to get your fire ignited for an illuminating life.

Stepford Wife or Warrior

If you think you could never measure up to the virtuous woman of Proverbs 31, you are mistaken. Find out what scripture tells us a virtuous woman is all about and the great calling that awaits you.

Speaking Topics

Scorched, but Glowing

Do you feel so singed that you can hardly sit down? Kimber knows the reality of being scorched. Learn about the tremendous fruit that comes from the refiners fire, preparing us to live in the risky faith embrace of God. You'll be inspired by her story.

Ruthless Trust or Grasshopper Faith

Do you battle areas in your life where the enemy attempts to derail your faith. Through down to earth scripture exploration and inspiring personal stories, Kimber reveals a strategy to close the door where the enemy has access in your life and walk in true faith.

Scandalous Joy

In a world where there are joy robbers all around, Kimber shows with humor and transparency how God intends for our lives to distribute joy in the wake of sorrow and stress. Get refreshed and experience the joy!

Sometimes You Just Have to Shoot the Horse

There are times when God needs to perform a Holy rewiring in our old systems of performance and dutiful religion. Let Kimber lead you back into sweet relationship with Jesus to experience a heart renewal.

Holiday

The Perfect Gift

When the world is short on giving, one gift blows the rest out of the water-no expiration date and it never stops giving.

Available for Business Groups

Making a Mark on the World

Are you a person who lights up a room and ushers in a refreshing breeze? Learn how you can make a difference and positively affect those around you.

Making a Vision a Reality

Let Kimber rev up your vision and move you into action by applying her strategies to move out of the "ideal" and into reality.

Retreats and Conferences

Lighting Up Your Path

For a great day event or retreat with multiple sessions, The Path™ will challenge and release people into their callings. Learn practical steps to accomplish goals and become purposeful. Personality assessments are available as well as an optional one-session overview.

Returning to the Heights

This dynamic retreat will free women to live in the light of His glory, free from shame and unworthiness. See things in a whole new light as your perspective is changed and infused with the love of Christ.

More topics and detailed descriptions available.